

EU Institute in Japan, Kansai Scholarship for the Academic Year 2009 (Supplementary Application)
Application Guidelines for Ph.D. Students & Post-doctoral (PD) Researchers

1. Objective

The EU Institute in Japan, Kansai (hereafter EUIJ-Kansai), a consortium formed by Kobe University, Kwasei Gakuin University and Osaka University, will award a limited number of scholarships to graduate students in the Ph.D. programme and post-doctoral researchers of the three consortium universities. The purpose of the scholarship is to support research trips by Japanese students to Europe for EU studies, thereby developing personnel who may be able to help advance EU studies in Japan.

2. Academic fields

Any fields of EU studies (both humanities and sciences). “EU studies” here means studies on the mechanism or regional systems concerning the EU, and does not simply mean conducting research in the EU member states.

3. Eligibility of applicants

Graduate students in the Ph.D. programme or post-doctoral (PD) researchers at Kobe University, Kwasei Gakuin University or Osaka University who conduct research in EU studies (As a rule, it is limited to the person who has a Japanese nationality.). However, the students who have previously received either the EUIJ-Kansai's scholarship for research trip or the its grant for internship are ineligible to apply for a scholarship.

Note: “PD researchers” here mean graduates of one of the three consortium universities who meet either of the conditions below at the time of application:

- 1) Persons who have completed the Ph.D. programme and currently have no full-time job.
- 2) Persons who had enrolled in the Ph.D. programme for the required number of years for completing a coursework but left the graduate school before completing a dissertation, and currently have no full-time job.

Disclaimer:

1. The international student doesn't have qualification requirements.
2. The application of the student who has the special settling down qualification that arose in Japan is exceptionally admitted.

4. Duration

The scholarships will be awarded in one lump sum to accepted research projects to be conducted and completed before 20 March 2010.

5. Number of grantees and amount of scholarship

Number of grantees: a few Ph.D. students/PD researchers

Amount of scholarship: The sum of the airfare and per diem (the standard amount specified for the country or the city times the number of days of stay; please see the Appendix). The maximum for each grantee is 5,000 euro (approximately 670,000 yen when the exchange rate is 134 yen/euro). The amount of scholarship in Japanese yen will fluctuate with changes in the yen/euro exchange rate.

6. Selection

1) Selection process

The EUIJ-Kansai's Scholarship Committee members will review the application documents and make a recommendation to its Steering Committee, which will then make a final decision on the selection of applicants.

2) Notification of the results

The applicants will be notified of the selection results from the Secretariat of EUIJ-Kansai at his/her affiliated university by 18 January 2010.

7. Documents to be submitted (to be prepared in Japanese or English)

1) Application form (Form 1)

2) Proposal for the research trip

For a proposal written in Japanese, it needs to be typed on A4-sized paper (40 characters per line x 30 lines) and contain approximately 6,000 characters. For a proposal written in English, it needs to be double-spaced and the length should be about 10 pages. The proposal must contain the following:

- i) Research title (not more than 40 Japanese characters or 30 English words).
- ii) Present state of your research [(a) brief review of the previous studies and issues to be investigated, and (b) your past research achievements and their relations to the proposed research].
- iii) Future research plan [including (a) objectives, (b) research methodology, and (c) what to elucidate and to what extent].
- iv) Characteristics, originality and expected findings of the research.

3) List of your research achievements (titles of published papers, names of journals,

volumes/issues, page numbers and years of publication, in reverse chronological order)

4) Research travel itinerary (Form 2)

5) Upon receipt of a letter of acceptance, the applicants who have prepared the above application documents in Japanese need to prepare (a) application form (Form 1), (b) a summary of research proposal (approximately 800 words), and (c) research travel itinerary in English.

8. Submission of application documents

Each applicants must bring in or mail the documents 1) and 2) above to the Secretariat of EUIJ-Kansai at his/her affiliated university (refer to item 13 on “Contacts”) by 12:00 noon on 8 January 2010. The documents will not be returned. For your records, applicants are recommended to make their own copies.

Note: If the EUIJ-Kansai decides to extend the deadline, a notice will be made in the homepage of the EUIJ-Kansai (<http://euij-kansai.jp/>).

9. Travel insurance

The recipient must be covered by travel insurance for all the period of research trip. The premium of insurance must be paid by the recipient.

10. Submission of documents after the completion of research trip

Students who receive a scholarship are obliged to submit the following documents.

1) Research report

Please give detailed accounts of what has been elucidated throughout the research trip, particularly research findings in terms of how it relates to the research proposal. A research report must be written in English, German or French; one written in Japanese cannot be accepted. The length of the report should be approximately 12 pages on A4-sized paper, double spaced. Please note that your research report will be posted on the website of the EUIJ-Kansai. The research report is due on 18 March 2010 in principle, but the deadline is postponed until 8 April 2010 if you return to Japan from the research trip after 1 March 2010. In all cases, early submission is encouraged.

2) Receipt of the airfare and boarding pass stubs, the financial report and the receipts of all expenditures incurred during the trip.

11. Publication of research findings

Publication of findings of the research funded by this scholarship must include an acknowledgement to the effect.

12. Suspension, discontinuation and return of the scholarship

If the recipient of the scholarship falls under any of the following categories, a scholarship may be suspended, and he/she may be requested to return all or a part of the scholarship awarded:

- 1) When it is discovered that the scholarship was won by dishonest means, such as false reports in the application.
- 2) When the student no longer meets the qualifications for applying for the scholarship.
- 3) When the student is disqualified from the scholarship, due to such reasons as dismissal from the university.
- 4) When the student receives any disciplinary action or other punishments from his/her affiliated university that makes it impossible for him/her to continue the research.
- 5) When the student fails to submit a research report by the specified date.
- 6) When the EUIJ-Kansai determines that the research report is ill-prepared and the objectives stated in the research proposal are not fulfilled.
- 7) When the student uses their scholarship for purposes other than his/her research.
